Contingent Workers and Contractors are excluded.

A

The Year-End Connect is intended to summarize performance discussions throughout the year. These two-way discussions are a platform for you and your manager to share feedback and summarize progress.

Q

How do I know the performance review process is fair? What if I disagree with the feedback or rating I received?

A

Aristocrat has a structured approach with various levels of review to ensure fairness and consistency across all individuals. If you have concerns related to a fair performance review process, speak with your P&C Business Partner.

Q

I am eligible to participate in the Year-End Connect, but I am new to my role. Should I complete the performance review process?

A

The performance review period evaluates individual performance from October – September. You should evaluate your performance based on the work you completed during this period. You do not need to complete the Year-End Connect if you were hired after 1 July (US).

Q

I was recently promoted or moved into a different role. Should I evaluate my performance while in my current or new role?

A

You should evaluate yourself in the role that reflects most of the work you have completed throughout the year (October – September). However, if you have goals for both, you evaluate both. Please note that both of your managers will provide input on your Year-End Connect.

Year-End Connect

Employee FAQs

Q

I had a change in reporting manager toward the end of the performance year. Who should evaluate my review?

Q

Who can I contact if I have more questions about the Year-End Connect?

A

Please get in touch with your manager or P&C Business Partner.

Q

I missed the opportunity to complete my Year-End Connect (reasons such as PTO). Can I still complete it after the period closes?

A

You may or may not be able to complete it, depending on the timing of the process. Please get in touch with your manager or P&C Business Partner for additional guidance.

Goals FAQs

Q

Can I still input my FY26 goals in Workday before completing my Year-End Connect?

A

Yes, you can still input your goals in Workday before completing your Year-End Connect form. Once you have submitted your goals, they will automatically update in the Connect form. Visit the Ally SharePoint – Goal Setting for additional resources.

Q

As I look at my goals in Workday, I noticed a section that says “Goals That Need to Be Reviewed” what does this mean?

A

If you see a section under your Goals in Workday labeled as “Goals That Need to Be Reviewed” then it means that you have goals under that category that need to be revised. This indicates that the due date may be incorrect, or your goals are misplaced under a different category. We encourage you to review all goals to ensure that they have been entered properly.
