Notes to Invoice

1. Payment and Interest

- 1.1 Payment of our bills is due on delivery. Interest is payable one month from delivery of the bill:-
 - 1.1.1 For non-contentious work at the rate currently payable on judgment debts pursuant to the Solicitors' (Non-Contentious Business) Remuneration Order 2009.
 - 1.1.2 For contentious work we understand and will exercise our statutory right to claim interest and compensation for debt recovery costs under the late payment legislation if we are not paid according to agreed terms.

2. Complaint

- 2.1 You have a right to object to this bill by way of the firm's complaints procedure. Please do raise any complaint in the first instance with the Partner of the firm responsible for the matter as soon as possible.
- 2.2 And / or you may make a complaint about this bill to the Legal Complaints Service.

3. Assessment (this applies to contentious and non-contentious work)

- 3.1 You may also be entitled to apply to the court to have our charges reviewed in a procedure called "taxation" or "assessment". This procedure is set out in Part 111 of the Solicitors Act 1974.

4. Notice Under Solicitors Act 1974 (contentious work only)

- 4.1 In respect of contentious business only Section 64 of the Act permits you to ask us for a bill containing detailed items and on such a requirement being made the bill overleaf will have no effect. The amount payable by you becomes the amount of the detailed bill even if higher since there will be costs involved in the preparation of it.
- 4.2 You must ask for the bill containing detailed items EITHER before you are served with any writ or other originating process for the recovery of costs included in this bill OR within three months of the date on which the bill was delivered to you WHICHEVER IS THE EARLIER.
