1. We can only accept payment up to 4pm on the payment date. These figures are only valid on the date this statement was sent (29/8/2025.) If the mortgage is not redeemed on this date, a new statement will need to be requested with at least 24 hours notice.
2. Wherever possible we will endeavour to submit an Electronic DS1 to HM Land Registry within five days of Redemption.
3. The balance and the interest rate of the Royal Bank One Account may vary. If there has been a change of interest rate or further transactions on the account after the date of this statement, the total amount detailed above may be insufficient to repay the outstanding borrowing. The account holders are liable for any amounts outstanding after the date of this statement. In these circumstances a new statement will be required.
4. We will need cleared funds to be paid. Please call us if you plan to redeem by cheque.
5. Additional Funds shown on this redemption statement are related to uncleared funds on the customers account. These must be taken into account upon redemption incase the payment is recalled. If the payment is not recalled any credit funds will be returned to the customer after they have fully cleared.
